

Delivery of the first home in the Turkish LaVanta project on the outskirts of the town of Kalkan was successfully completed on May 25, 2009.

A total of 6 out of the 29 units sold, have been completed, including the show house. Deliveries are expected to take place over the next few weeks, while the rest of the units are also nearing completion.

